ST. THOMAS AQUINAS SCHOOL ADVISORY BOARD NOVEMBER 2008

The Results are in...

Our ITBS test results are now available and were included in the last newsletter. Look them over and be sure to read the explanation Dr. McDermott offers for considering what the scores mean to our students and school.

Suffice it to say, STAGS students are making the grade!

Thanks to the hard work of our staff and teachers. Their work contributes greatly to the success of our students.

Together Time

Parents have shared some great ideas for teaching their children important skills while spending time doing something fun...

Cooking—few things teach math like whipping up a batch of cookies. Teach measurement, fractions, and a little chemistry with a built-in reward!

Build a shelf—teach geometry, measurement, safety, and art.

Buy and set up a bowl for a goldfish or Betta—teach biology, environment, and responsibility for care and feeding.

Families are the difference

Catholic education has a generations-old tradition of excellence built on the care, love, and involvement of parishioners and parents.

Right now we need some help in our sports programs and PTO projects and events, among other things. Find something you think might be interesting and give it a try!

Thank you for all you do!
